Located in the midst of Noord Amsterdam's largest park, Noorderparkbar provides a welcome pit stop for coffee, drinks and snacks in this otherwise largely residential part of the city. The café sprung up as the result of a bottom-up initiative by two Amsterdam architecture practices, SLA and Overtreders W, who designed, funded and completed the project. The café's structure and interior—except for the espresso machine—are built entirely from recovered materials.

Closed Mon. Open Tue-Sun from
6pm

Set among the ruggedly photogenic shrubbery, warehouses and of the northern IJ, de Goudfzant's sumptuous French fusion cuisine, excellent wine list and undressed-up-industrial garage setting make this one of the most successful dining room restaurant benefits from its remote location by attracting clientele willing to make the effort for their epicurean success. Night views of central Amsterdam twinkling away in the distance are hazily stunning.
